

Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ JUNE 5, 2016

Sunday Scripture Meditation:

First Book of Kings 17:17-24; Letter of St. Paul to the Galatians 1:11-19; Luke 7:11-17

*God wants to reveal Himself to us. He wants to show us how much He loves us. He also wants to speak to us in the quiet of our hearts – perhaps to ask us to be more kind and generous to that lonely person we just walked past. The more we come to God, the more we will hear His voice.

Defending Our Religious Liberty #224

During Fortnight for Freedom (June 21-July 4), our liturgical calendar will celebrate a series of great martyrs who remained faithful in the face of persecution by political power – St. John Fisher and St. Thomas Moore, St. John the Baptist, SS Peter and Paul and the First Martyrs of the Church of Rome. Last month, the U.S. Supreme Court unanimously vacated the decisions before it, remanding the cases to the lower courts with instructions to afford the parties the opportunity to work out an alternative approach to the mandate. Let us pray that the State courts prevail in favor of religious freedom. If you haven't done so already, please voice your opposition to the federal health care mandate by calling U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services Sylvia Mathews Burwell at 202-205-5445, and your elected state representatives. Let them know that the mandate is in violation of our First Amendment right to religious freedom.
